This proposition: We have in our hands for sale that valuable residence property recently sold by Dr. A. F. Hargrave to Mr. J. B. S. Mc-Intosh, situated in this town. This property consists of a good house and necessary out-housea, and about four acres of beautiful lawn, a large number of excellent fruit trees, berries vines etc. The location of this property commands a splendid view north and east, of which ones eyes never weary. In fact this is one of the most elegant and desirable residence sites in this, or any other town in Southwest Virginia. Now, we want to sell this property. The owner lives in a distant city, and cannot look after his interest here personally. He has large businessinterest in New York and other cities which require his time and presence. We mean business—this property must be sold. If you want to buy it come to see us at once, and make us an offer. We will make prices and terms to suit you. our hands for sale that valuable resdel!
